Directions : Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow (Q. Nos. 66 to 75) by selecting the most appropriate option :

A completely uneducated farmer's work is far more important than that of a professor. We can live without education, but we die if we have no food. If no one cleaned our streets and took the rubbish away from the house, we should get terrible diseases in our towns. In countries where there are no servants, because every one is ashamed of doing house work, the professors have to waste much of their time doing house work.

In fact when we say that all of us must be educated, we mean that all of us must be educated in such a way that firstly, each of us can do what ever job is suited to his ability and brain and secondly that we can realize that all jobs are necessary to society and that it is very bad to be ashamed of one's work or to scorn some one else's. Only such type of education can be called valuable to society.
